White River. Three Miles from the Mouth the "Tyler" grounded, and with great difficulty was got off the bar. The Commander of the Gunboat - with whom it was discretionary to proceed or not - decided that it would be better foolhardiness to attempt to go farther at the present low stage of the water and we consequently dropped down into the Mississippi River and awaited the arrival of the "Benton" which had gone down the Mississippi towards the gulf. Early on the morning of the seventh the "Benton" arrived and we steamed towards Helena Ark. which was reached by the entire fleet in safety. Early on the morning of August 8, 1862. Only one fatality occurred Private Samuel M. Fadden of Company D. fell overboard Aug. 4, 1862 and was drowned. Aug. 31, 1862 In camp at Helena Ark.

except as follows:

RECORD OF EVENTS.

This Regt. participated in the capture of Camp Jackson May 10th. They were assigned by the commanding officer to the duty of closing the gap between the camp by way of Market Street and Clark Avenue. They were about half a mile from the prison and sustained no casualties. Detachments from this Regt. have several times been sent armed and unarmed to aid the U.S. Marshal in the execution of legal process for the search for a seizure of arms in the City of St. Louis. No assistance has been offered in any case.
